*****************

PRICE On Trains, Three Cents. In St. Louis, One Cent. Outside St. Louis, Two Cents.

JOHN McGILLICUDDY, NEW CENTRAL COMMITTEEMAN.

JOHN McGILLICUDDY (CUDDY MACK), Democratic City Central Committeeman from the Fourth Ward.

Western Bascome, British Vice Consul in St. Louis, has received from Sir

Julian Pauncefote, Ambassador from Great Britain to the United States, a letter acknowledging the receipt by his Majesty, King Edward VII., of the memorial adopted at the Odeon in February in honor of her late Majesty, Victoria, Queen of England and Great Britain and Empress of India. A copy of the letter fol-British Embassy, Washington, April 6, 1901; Sir-I have the honor to inform you that I duly forwarded to the Marquis of Lansdowne, for transmission to its high destination, the copy of the memorial service held at St. Louis, Mo., on the occasion of the deeply la-

The King was much pleased at this touching tribute to the memory of the late Queen, and I am now instructed to convey to you his Majesty's most sincere thanks for this high-ed death of her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, Empress of India.

ly appreciated mark of sympathy. I have the honor to be, sir, yours obediently,

RECEIPT OF MEMORIAL TO QUEEN.

BRITISH EMBASSY ACKNOWLEDGES

Toda McGillicuddy, better known as odd name which had become attached to the "Dutch" Behrend in the back room of the City Central Committee to repthe Fourth Ward, vice Captain P. dy, resigned, first came into public motice ten years ago as the proprietor of "The Dead Rabbit," a saloon and free-and-easy, located on the west side of Broad-way, between Wash and Carr streets. that time a dozen similar resorts thed in the lower section of the city. If them were "The Bucket of Blood," cent quantities, Singing and other specialties by amateur and broken-down professional "artists" were featured to get the man with a dime into these saloons. es a dance hall in connection with the thirst auditorium afforded patrons an rtunity to trip a ragger waltz.

McGillicuddy's "joint" obtained the great-

PROTEST AGAINST

SPECIAL BY CABLE

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

coal has aroused wild opposition.

Sir Edward Reed, member of Parliament miners, asserts that the tax will throw from Cardiff, demanded that existing contracts for coal be exempted. William Woods, over 100,000 miners out of employment and practically paralyze the export trade, WILL HELP AMERICAN TRADE.

Washington, April 19.—England's new taxes, imposed to meet the heavy charges growing out of the Boer war, may prove beneficial to American exporters. It is not believed that the import duty to be im-posed on sugar will affect the trade be-tween the United States and the United Kingdom in any way.

Experts of the Treasury Department believe that the United States will profit to some degree by the imposition of the export duty of 1 shilling per ton on coal shipped out of the United Kingdom. The ats of American coal mines have been ally making their way into new mar-d that in many places the present margin of cost in favor of British coal as against that from the United States is less than I shilling per ton, and that the im-

PROPOSED COAL TAX.

Saloon.

The tragedy was highly sensational and attracted the attention of all classes. Testimony was conflicting, some declaring that it was a case of cold-blooded murder; others said that the killing was justified. At the trial Tracy was found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary. He was a good prisoner, and after his discharge returned to this city, where he is now a successful commission man.

cently he opened a saloon at Sixth street and Franklin avenue with Johnny Ryan. Scarcely a week after the place was opened his partner, Ryan, shot and killed "Red" Houlihan, an ex-convict, in the room attached to the saloon. Ryan proved that it was a case of self-defense, and was not prosecuted McGillicuddy himself has been arrested a est notoriety through a killing which occurred there after the place had gained a reputation far and wide on account of the battery for striking a Sergeant of Police.

W. R. FAULKNER, JR., APPOINTED SECRETARY TO CHIEF KIELY.

Son of Doctor Faulkner, Superintendent of Police Department Stables.

C. H. JONES RETIRES MAY I.

The resignation of Charles H. Jones as secretary to the Chief of Police was re ceived and accepted by the Police Board at its meeting Friday.

William R. Faulkner, Jr., son of Doctor William R. Faulkner, superintendent of the Police Department stables and department veterinarian, was appointed by Chief Kiely to succeed Mr. Jones, whose resignation takes effect May 1. The resigning secretary was appointed by former Chief of Police Campbell and has performed his duties with satisfaction to all. He will receive a position at the City Hall equally as good as that which he leaves at the Four Courts, the secretary's being $1,800 a year. The change was not made for personal reasons, but is in line with the policy of reorganization. William R. Faulkner, Jr., was a candidate for secretary of the Council, to which George Mockler, formerly assistant secre-tary of the Police Board, was elected. He

Appointed Private Secretary to Chief of Police Kiely on Friday,

He attended the public schools and afterwards the Manual Training School and has been engaged in the brokerage business, is 30 years old, and has been a resident of being a member of the Merchants' Ex-St. Louis twenty-seven years, residing with

SWEETHEART WED ANOTHER WHILE HE SOUGHT WEALTH.

Louis Pittaluga, Football of Fortune, Now a Wreck at the City Hospital.

HE ROAMED IN MANY LANDS.

Moved by love and ambition, Louis Pittaluga, 44 years old, now a patient at the City Hospital, set out twenty years ago from Louisville, Ky., for the West, where he hoped to secure a competence. But he is now poorer than when he left home. He has not seen his sweetheart for a score of years and his parents are dead. His health is broken and he longs for death.

Pittaluga is a printer. At an early age he entered the office of the Louisville Courier-Journal as "printer's devil." He at Third and Eim streets; "The Little Velvet," at Sixth and Morgan streets; "The Red Onion," on Sixth street, opposite Union Market, and "The Lame Goose," on Sixth street, near Clark avenue.

In all of these places music was the chief attraction, next to beer, which was sold in large 5-cent quantities. Singing and other. nothing in store for him. In those days there was much talk of the discoveries of gold in the Far West. This seemed to offer an escape from the daily grind and with go to the hospital, and the doctors think his but money enough for railroad fare he bade adieu to the loved ones at home and started for Colorado. to Montana, then to Arizona, Wyoming and an Francisco, where he took ship for Australia. His luck was unchanged, and he never discovered until he came back to St. came back to the United States. He recame back to the United States. He relouis. Then from a brother in Louisville mained two years in Oregon and came to he learned that his father and mother St. Louis in 1839, worn out by privation and were dead and that his sweetheart had disappointment. Tuesday he was forced to married another.

After Twenty Years' Wander-in Search of Fortune, Returned Find Parents Dead and Sweet-condition serious. For several years after he left home he The story of his wanderings is one continuous tale of failure. For three years he remained in Colorado, prospecting the wrote to his parents and his sweetheart, remained in Colorado, prospecting the dress and what encouragement he might Leadville district. From Colorado he went have received from those who were always in his thoughts he cut off from himself. The fate of his parents and his sweetheart

NAT GOODWIN'S "FIREFLY" IS NETTED BY CUPID.

Photograph by Strauss. MISS YSOBEL HASKINS.

Who Leaves the Stage to Wed a Wealthy New York Stock Broker.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, April 19.-Miss Ysobel Haskins, who made such a hit last season as the Firefly in "When We Were Twenty-One," has retired from the stage to become the Fifty-seventh street, where the actiess lived with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Henning-Miss Haskins left the cast of "The Climbers" to prepare for her wedding. Mr. bride of Walter W. Price, a New York business man.

The marriage will take place at 555 West

Price is a broker in Wall street. He was with the Rough Riders in Cuba, and is a member of the Lambs', Manhattan, New York Athletic and Racquet clubs. bride of Walter W. Price, a New York slandered, will prosecute his civil suit for

PRETTY WOMAN HELPS THE POLICE TO ARREST AN ALLEGED SWINDLER.

She Says He Was Engaged to Her When He Already Had a Wife.

Interesting Story of How Her Brother Lost $1,300 and

New York, April 19.—J. H. Snider, whom the police say, is also known as J. H. Strosnider, has a pretty woman to thank for the fact that he is in the hands of the officers of the law.

At least, the pretty woman is the direct and visible cause. She says, and the po-lice say, there are other causes and that the pretty woman was only the arresting agent.

In fact, the police say, Mr. Snider is nothing more nor less than an ali-around Estella G. Eadie, and she has two griev-ances. She declares them to be, first, that Snider was the cause of her brother, Robert, losing $1,300; second, that Snider pro posed marriage to her when he was al eady married. Snider is under bond of $1,000, to answer to the first-named charge.

Snider is a tall, well-built man of about 35. He has light hair and a mustache to match, and on one check there is a scar cakes in the West. Taylor has invented brother had waited in vain for the stock beginning behind the ear and running nearly some improvements. He wants $3,000 to and had told her of the whole transaction o the mouth. Snider is also orefinger on one hand. In August last Snider, with a man named Turner, was at Atlantic City. Both were well dressed, had good manners and plenty

How They Met.

Miss Estella G. Eadie, her sister, Jennie and her brother. Robert, the children of a Bridgeport widow, were also at the Jersey young women, and Snider, it is alleged, posed as a broker. When the vacation of the Eadies was over Snider asked Miss Estella if he might call snider, and Turner were introduced to the on her at her mother's home at Bridgeport. The young woman gave her consent, as did sister and brother. A few days after the Eadles reached home Snider called and was introduced to Mrs. Eadle, an invalid. Mrs. Eadle was charmed with the dashing stranger. He called often and finally became engaged to Estella.

In November last Snider telegraphed to Robert Eadie to come to this city. Whe Eadle got here Snider said, it is alleged: Tobert Eadie to come to this city. When Eadle that he had all the money but $300. In the solution of the solut an electric plow that is selling like hot for the money. It's a small gold mine."

"I'll put up the other $2,000 myself." Last of the Thousand.

Eadle returned to Bridgeport, got the $1,000 and came back to New York. "I'll go over to my friend Taylor in Forty-fifth street," said Snider, "and get the stock. Wait here. It's no trouble. I am 'glad to help Estella's brother."

Eadle waited in the Grand Union Hotel, and in about two hours Snider came back. "I don't know what to say to you," he began, it is asserted. "Taylor was out, and on my way back I drifted into a gambling louse and lost the $1,000 at faro.

house and lost the $1,000 at faro.

"Go back to Bridgeport," he continued.
"Don't tell your sister. I don't want her to think that I'm a gambler. I have got some property in Virginia. I'll sell it and put up the $3,000 myself."

In a few days Snider wrote to young and after being photographed was locked in the said when told he was wanted. "Let me wait until the train comes in."

"Come and see our cousin," replied the detective. "He wants to see you hadly."

Snider was taken to police headquarters, and after being photographed was locked." put up the $3,000 myself."

In a few days Snider wrote to young proved to be a military-looking It was shortly before Christmas then, and young Eadle came to New York and man, with gray hair and mustache. Eadle said he only had $1,000.

"Go and get it," Snider said, it is asserted.

consulted a lawyer. The lawyer went to po-lice headquarters and learned that Snider was "Big Lem," and that he was at the races at New Orleans. Then, to bring him back, Eadle wrote to Snider that he had money to invest, and nider came to New York.

ost $55 at faro.

A week ago last Sunday he telephoned known to them as "Big Lem." was held in court yesterday, charged with swindling the brother of beautiful Estella G. Eadle, to whom he was engaged. Snider, when he became engaged to her, was already married, it is said. Miss Eadie learned of this, and it was through her that the man was arrested in New York City after being here. When Endle got here Snider was fust $25 short, and Eadle, the latter claims,

Then when Eadle was waiting for his stock. Snider took him to a well-known gambling resort and introduced him as a riend. The Bridgeport man sat down and few days, my boy," said Snider after dinner. "Trust your brother-in-law-to-be, cld man, and you'll come out all right."

Fiancee's Trust Wanes.

All this time Snider had been an ardent and attentive wooer, and his pretty flances had absolute faith in him. But after her

"I'll get the stock and send it lured there from New Orleans.

A week ago last Sunday he telephoned to Estella. She replied that she would come on the train due here at 6 p. m.

Her brother hurried to New York and went to police headquarters. A few moments later two detective Sergeants went to the Grand Union Station. Snider was there, well dressed and prosperous-looking.

up.
Estella Eadle was in court. She was called upon to identify "Big Lem," and did so scily.

KENTUCKY LAWYER KILLS HORSE TRAINER

Will D. Nicholas, of a Prominent Southern Family, Shoots Owen Bradley.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Lexington, Ky., April 19.-Owen Bradley, the well-known trainer of thoroughbred horses, was shot and killed by Will D. Nicholas, a young lawyer of this city, in a downtown saloon late Friday afternoon. The quarrel between the two men is said to have been about a woman on whom Nicholas is reported to have squandered a great deal of money. Lew Laws, the bartender, was the only eyewitness to the affray. Bradley was tanding at the bar when Nicholas entered. Laws says that the only words he heard spoken were from Nicholas, who said: "I hear you have been looking for me," and then began firing. Bradley fell at the first shot with a mortal wound through the heart. He was hit three times afterwards in the left arm. He had evidently made an effort to draw his own weapon, which was found on the floor at his side.

Nicholas comes from a prominent family. He is the eldest son of late Captain W. D. Nicholas, formerly Sheriff of this county and for years the cashier of the Second National Bank. He is a nephew of Solomon Van Meter, the representative of Fayette County in the State Legislature.

KNOX WINS THE DEBATE

Victory Over Beloit.

Galesburg, Ill., April 19.—Debaters from Beloit, Wis., and Knox colleges, met here Friday night in the Fifth annual contest, with the subject, "Resolved, That labor unions as now conducted are for the best

Knox supported the affirmative, three speakers, A. W. Bays, '91, Rushville; R. M. Arnold, '92, Galesburg; George Shurt-

PAUL REVERE'S RIDE IS CELEBRATED AT BANQUET.

Missouri Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Meet at Mercautile Club.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Paul Revere's ride and the battles of Conord and Lexington were celebrated Friday night by the Missouri Society, Sons of the American Revolution, with a banquet at the Mercantile Club.

The following officers were elected: President, Clark H. Sampson; vice presidents, W. B. Homer, C. P. Walbridge, L. C. Slavens, the Reverend W. W. Boyd; honorary vice presidents, Samuel Treat, George E. Leighton, Nathan Cole, Josiah Fogg. Stephen P. Twiss; secretary, Ashley Cabell; treasurer, I. Shreve Carter; registrar, J. M. Fulton; historian, Horace Kephart; chaplain, the Reverend S. J. Nicholis: Board of Managers, E. O. Stanard, T. Griswold Comstock, Hinman H. Clark, Melvin H. Stearns, James H. Jones, George H. Shields, Edwin Harrison, Charles M. Napton, Peyton H. Skipworth, Jr., I. M. Mason, Gaius Paddock, James E. Withrow, E. L. Adreon. The banquet hall was decorated with flags and flowers and many members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Sons of Colonial Wars and the New Engand Society were present.

President Clark H. Sampson introduced J L. Griffiths of Indiana, who delivered a stirring address on "The Real Washington." The Reverend Doctor W. J. McKittrick of St. Louis spoke on "American Patriotism." St. Louis spoke on "American Patriotism."
The music programme was directed by Professor Robyn and the following songs were rendered: "Red, White and Blue," Mr. Leslie Fitch; "O, My Beautiful Country," Miss Marietta Bagby; "Believe Me," Miss Irens Critchfield, Mr. Joseph Buse and Mr. Leslie Fitch; "Star-Spangled Banner," Miss Eugenia Getler; "Larboard Watch," Mr. Joseph Buse and Mr. Leslie Fitch; "Yankee Volunteer." Miss Luella Webb, Miss Marietta Bagby, Mr. Joseph Buse and Mr. Leslie Fitch. All the audience sang Mr. Leslie Fitch. All the audience sang "America." Among those present were: Mersieurs and Mesdames— Clark H. Sampson, Melvin Moore

Doctor W. J. Say, D. L. Teachout, Charles H. Duffer, A. H. Robbins,

Generals have been renewed, suggests that something is likely to be effected during me

Alfred Milner's absence. The paper also says the Government to divided as to who will fill Sir Alfred Milner's place. Mrs. Botha is again acting as a se-#### crease in the cost of the British coal, will consumers to buy American coal. A committee of the Cobden Club met toht and resolved to open agitation against be sugar and coal taxes. The Daily Chronicle aserts that Sir Mi-Beach already has agreed to all existing contracts from the coal President Philips sent the following appointments to Mayor Wells for approval:

Rose Eissler, stenographer; Henry J.
Paulus, issue clerk; William J. Gavigan, assistant; Edward A. Monahan, cierk, and Leo Osthaus, deputy assessor, special tax division. stary letters of the Dally News,

IEDWARDS TO SUCCEED SECRETARY FOSTER.

Former Member of Parliament Board of Public Improvements De-Says It Will Throw 100,000 lays Action-Retiring Official Miners Out of Work. Served 28 Years.

President Phillips Friday submitted to London, April 19.-The proposition of Sir the Board of Public Improvements his ap-Michael Hicks-Beach to tax the exports of pointment of Waller Edwards as secretary, to succeed Major Emory S. Foster, resigned.

On motion of Water Commissioner Flad. confirmation was deferred until next Tuesday. Major Fester's resignation was tendered by Mr. Phillips and was immediately mer member of Parliament, a leader of accepted.

It was thought by some that the postponement of action on the appointment inclicated a disposition on the part of the five Republican members of the board to draw political lines and oppose Mr. Phillips, but there now seems to be every prospect that the board will readily approve the appointment at next Tuesday's meeting. The policy of the board has always been to grant the President much

Major Foster acted as secretary for twenty-eight years. For several months he has not attended to the duties because of Illness, and the work devolved upon George Brand, the board's stenographer. Mr. Brand was the only candidate for secretary, but he was practically eliminated from the race Friday when offered his former position.

The board held an executive session in the afternoon and informally considered the new World's Fair park site ordinance. The following new committees were selected Friday: President's Department—President Phillips and Messra Varrelmann, Flad and Hermann, Street Department—Messra. Varrelmann, Flad, Ridgely and Phillips. Water Department—Messra. Flad, Hermann, Alt and Phillips. Park Department—Messra. Ridgely, Alt and Phillips. Harbor and Wharf Department—Messra. Alt, Ridgely and Phillips. Street Grades—Messra. Varrelmann, Flad, Hermann and Phillips. Lighting—Messra. Flad, Ridgely and Phillips.

No Wreath on Beaconfield's Tomb. SPECIAL BY CABLE.

London, April 19.—For the first time since the death of the Earl of Beaconsfield, Primrose Day passed without a royal wreath being placed on the tomb in Hughenden churchyard.

The annual pligrimage to the churchyard, however, showed no diminution, and the statue opposite Westminster Abbey was profusely decorated.

Case Against Sheriff Dismissed. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Pine Bluff, Ark., April 19.—The case against Sheriff Thomas Manion of Mount Vernon, Ill., charging him with slander, was dismissed and he returned home. Mr. Guy Beauman, who claims to have been

College Students Celebrate the REFUBLIC SPECIAL

interests of the people of the United

R. M. Arnold, '92, Galesburg; George Shurtleff, '93, Pekin. The Beloit representatives were: M. D. Smith, '92; L. C. Porter, '91, Paung-Chaung, China, and A. L. Curtis. Castlewood, S. D.
The judges were: Professor James A. Jones, Northwestern University; Professor W. T Drew, University of Illinois, and Judge William Spensley of Galena. The Galesburg labor unions attended the meeting in a body.

The decision of the judges was unanimous for Knox. The students celebrated the victory with bands and bonfires late into the night.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS RENEWED London Sun Expects Some Results

London, April 19.-The Sun Friday, con-in Milner's Absence. arming the report that the peace negotia- between